Green Kalam Project and Tree plantation Camp was organized on 10th August 2017 at Sembarampakkam Village.

SWACHHATA ACTIVITIES

Initially, the students met 300 people in the Adopted Villages and conducted a Survey to assess the amenities and facilities in their homes. As a part of Swachh Bharath, the students actively involved themselves and cleaned the places. They also created awareness among the people on cleanliness. Also, a Campaign was conducted to explain the importance of toilets and its uses. A Rally was conducted in the Adopted Villages by our students. Student Volunteers planted saplings with a view to create a better understanding about the importance of trees in these areas. Hence, it was an eye opener for many people of the adopted villages. The people readily promised to maintain a hygienic life by using toilet system and they promised to keep their village clean and green.

GREEN KALAM PROJECT - TREE PLANTATION CAMP

Green Kalam Project and Tree plantation Camp were organized on 4th August 2011 . With a vision of planting one lakh trees, 15,000 trees were planted inside Sairam Campus on that day. Padmashree Shri. Vivek Actor inaugurated the Tree Plantation Programme.
